“Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the cloth that had been wrapped around Jesus’ head. The cloth was still lying in its place, separate from the linen. Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed.”

John 20: 6-8

Dear Parishioners,

“Jesus Christ is risen! Alleluia!” The tomb is empty. Jesus—the Son of God, Lord, and Savior—has conquered sin, death, and evil itself. Darkness has given way to the light of a new day. He has established a new Kingdom, a kingdom of love and truth, justice and peace. This Kingdom is made visible in the Church, which is founded upon the apostles, which continues to proclaim His Gospel, and which continues to share His life and love through the sacraments.

Keeping faith during this difficult time of COVID is a beautiful gift. Granted, this Easter is unlike any other, but better than last Easter. While some may not be able to gather for Holy Mass, we all remain in a spiritual communion, united in the love of the Risen Lord. We also have real hope that life will return to normal.

But what will that normal be? Great gifts have come to light this Easter, despite the circumstances. Busy lives have given way to better family time. People and things we often take for granted have become much more appreciated. The control we once had but have now lost has made us bend our knees and trust in the Lord. In all, this Easter can truly be the resurrection we as individuals, as families, and as a country need to rise above the miasma of worldliness, set our hearts on what is truly important, and open our eyes to a greater vision of life. The challenge then as we may come out of COVID is not to go back into the tomb of busyness, complacency, and worldliness, but to live with Christ, the Risen Lord. Our new normal must be a stronger faith in Jesus, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Please know Fr. McShurely, Fr. Pinizzotto, and I are praying for you. We ask for your prayers. Please pray also for those individuals who have received the beautiful Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil: Rebecca Amland, Michael Johnson, Mario Chiu de la Fuente, and Nicholas Peloso. Lastly, thank you for your prayers, words of encouragement, and your support.

So let us once again joyfully proclaim today and every day, “Jesus Christ is risen! Let us rejoice and be glad! For this is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad!”

May God bless you,

Father William P. Saunders, Pastor

A Statement from Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge, Bishop of Arlington, on Child Abuse Prevention Month

April 2021

During National Child Abuse Prevention Month, we draw special attention to the extraordinary responsibility we have to protect children entrusted to our care. We know this past year has been particularly difficult for many families, and, sadly, with the increase in pressures and heightened anxiety many are experiencing, children have been subjected to unprecedented levels of abuse and neglect. It is also well-known that in the past, Church officials have failed in their duty to protect children from abuse committed by priests. This abhorrent reality has inspired the Church to make drastic changes in the way it operates to ensure young people are guarded appropriately. Likewise, all people of good will must work together to ensure each and every child is valued and protected.

The Diocese of Arlington continues to work diligently to protect children from abuse in any form and in all circumstances and maintains a zero-tolerance policy for anyone credibly accused of sexual abuse of a minor. We remain fully committed to training our clergy, staff and volunteers to identify and report any suspected instances of abuse. Our Office of Child Protection and Victim Assistance works with parish staff to ensure training and prevention are followed throughout our parishes and schools.

I am filled with gratitude for the exceptional staff and volunteers in our diocese, parishes and schools for their dedication and commitment to protect children from any instances of abuse. During this month, we must recognize that the devastating impact of child abuse is lifelong, and therefore we should connect with victims and learn more about what they need to find healing and peace. This process begins by listening compassionately to their stories. We must walk with them and be willing to accompany them on their journey of healing. And it must be done on their time. Committed and united, we can reduce child abuse and help victims find healing in Christ. We ask that Our Lord protect each child entrusted to our care, that he brings peace to families experiencing hardship, and that he grants us a renewed sense awe for the wonderful gift of each child.

The Diocese encourages anyone aware of misconduct or abuse by any person affiliated with the Diocese to report it to local law enforcement and contact the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (703) 841-2530.

St. Agnes School is a Catholic community centered on the teachings of Jesus Christ and strengthened by the partnership between parents, who are the primary educators of our students, and our dedicated teaching staff.

We believe in the mission to educate our students so that they become loving Christians, inspired learners, outstanding achievers, natural communicators, and strong servants of God.

Saint Agnes Catholic School

Congratulations to our 6th grade classes for their performances of The Odyssey and The Aeneid! The students finished a unit on Greek literature and then wrote their own versions of the plays to perform for school members and family via Zoom. Way to go, and a special thanks to Mrs. Morris for guiding them through this endeavor! To Ithaca!

For information about openings, contact the school office at 703-527-5423.
