Dear Parishioners,

Just as the first settlers came to this country and paused to give thanks, having endured the hard Atlantic crossing, harsh conditions, and illness, so must we today, and every day, pause and give thanks. They realized that in this new land they could be free: free to practice their religion, free to have a say in their government, free to own land, and free to pursue any opportunity they desired. The same is true for us today. For all that the Lord has given to us, we must give thanks. We pray in the Psalms: “Let us give thanks to the Lord for He is good. His love is everlasting.”

Be thankful this day for how the Lord has been good to you and shown His love. As we gather with family and friends today, with food on the table in the warmth of our homes, be thankful. For the country, which has provided so many opportunities as well as security, be thankful. For our church which carries on the mission of Christ, and nourishes us by Word and Sacrament, be thankful. Our “thank you” list could go on and on.

On behalf of Fr. McShurley, Fr. Pinizzotto, and Fr. Oetjen, I am very grateful for your support. I appreciate your sacrifices of time, talent, and treasure, which make St. Agnes a strong faith community committed in service to our Savior, each other, and the neighboring community.

I encourage you to attend Mass on this Thursday morning at 9:00 a.m. Remember, the word Eucharist means “thanksgiving.” The Holy Mass is the perfect way to say “thank you” to our Lord “from whom all blessings flow,” and, through prayer, to those individuals who have helped make those blessings possible.

May God bless you,
Father William P. Saunders, Pastor

Days of Recollection for Men and Women Discerners

Could Christ be calling you to the priesthood or religious life? Take a step to find out and enjoy some quiet prayer time this Advent. Both events are Sunday December 19: the Men's Day of Recollection is with diocesan seminarians and Franciscan Friars; the Women's Day of Recollection is with the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy. These events are for those 18-35 years old interested in deepening their prayer life and exploring their vocation. For more information and to register contact the Office of Vocations, 703-841-2514 or vocations@arlingtondiocese.org. Deadline to register is Friday, December 10.

Run, Walk, Bike, Swim, even Kayak to Support Our Seminarians

Looking for a motivation for your workouts? Now there are even more ways to support our future priests through our Race for Seminarians campaign. Pick your sport: walk, run, bike, hike, swim, kayak -- the sky's the limit! Pick your route: Join an existing race, map your own, or do a virtual one. Pick your sponsors: Get them on board to help you support our future priests. Build your team: Encourage each other. Not an athlete? You can still join the cause by supporting our team (and future priests) with funds and prayers. Visit ArlingtonDiocese.org/RACE to learn about all these options and start building your team today!

Food insecurity is becoming more widespread...more families are affected by it, especially those with young children, the elderly and those who are handicapped. There are not enough words to tell each and every story. Thank you." - Ruth Kulick, OLBR Outreach
