John Cuddeback, Ph.D.

 John A. Cuddeback, Ph.D., is professor of Philosophy at Christendom College, where he has taught for twenty-five years. He lectures widely on topics including virtue, fatherhood, friendship, and household, and his professional writings appear in various academic journals and books. His book True Friendship was recently republished by Ignatius Press. His blogging at Life-Craft.org, where he offers the online courses Man of the Household and Woman of the Household, is known for applying ancient wisdom to life today.

■ LIVE ONLINE COURSE
This ten-part course treats the four cardinal virtues according to the thought of Aristotle, St. Thomas Aquinas, and twentieth-century Thomist philosopher Josef Pieper. These four virtues—prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance—are called cardinal because they are the hinges of the moral life. We will consider their nature, their critical role in human life, and how to cultivate them today. Classes will meet weekly and recordings will be made available for those who cannot attend live. Registration closes on September 5th. For more information about our events, please visit InstituteofCatholicCulture.org or call (540) 635-7155.

We believe in the mission to educate our students so that they become loving Christians, inspired learners, outstanding achievers, natural communicators, and strong servants of God.

St. Agnes teachers and students are running into the first week of school! We are excited to be back on campus and can't wait to see what God has in store for us this year. As St. Ignatius of Loyola urged, "Go forth and set the world on fire."

Have you heard of the quote, "No pain, no gain. No guts, no glory"? Jesus tells His disciples the cost of eternal life is taking up the crosses, hardships, and difficulties of life and following His example and teachings.

Q1: What is the hardest part about following Jesus?

Q2: How can you motivate yourself to persevere in carrying your cross?
