Dear Parishioners,

Once again we celebrate Thanksgiving, our unique American Holiday. Just as the word holiday derives from the words holy day, we need to make Thanksgiving a holy day, not just a day for family, food, and perhaps football, but most importantly a day for the Lord. The Lord has blessed us in so many ways: our family, food, homes, and material blessings; our very lives; and of course, our faith revealed to us by our Savior, Jesus Christ, and handed onto to us through our Church.

However, we must never take any of these blessings for granted. We see so much prejudice, hatred, disrespect, and violence not only in areas throughout the world, like Ukraine and Israel, but also here in our own country and our own community. What we thought was stable seems to be spiraling out of control. What we thought was guaranteed and protected seems under attack. This Thanksgiving, we need to recall the foundational Judeo-Christian principles upon which our country was founded and why it has prospered, yet also remember the words of President Ronald Reagan delivered at his first inaugural address as Governor of California (1967): “Freedom is a fragile thing and is never more than one generation away from extinction. It is not ours by inheritance, it must be fought for and defended constantly by each generation, for it comes only once to a people.” Therefore, let us make this Thanksgiving a holy day to give real thanks. Each day is a gift from the Lord. We pray in Psalm 119:24: “This is the day the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it. O Lord, grant salvation! O Lord, grant prosperity.” I encourage you to attend Mass this Thursday morning at 9:00 a.m. Remember, the word Eucharist means “thanksgiving.”

On behalf of Fr. Haissig, Fr. Pinizzotto, and Fr. Oetjen, I am very grateful for your support. As your pastor, I sincerely say, “Thank you.”

May God bless you,

Father William P. Saunders, Pastor

“I remain in awe of your parish’s generosity...there really are no words to express our gratitude. Food insecurity is becoming more widespread...more families are affected by it, especially those with young children, the elderly and those who are handicapped. There are not enough words to tell each and every story. Thank you.” - Ruth Kulick, OLBR Outreach

Saint of the Week

Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro
(1891-1927)
November 18th

Graham Greene's classic The Power and the Glory immortalized Mexico's persecuted Church of the 1920s. But photographs of Father Pro—arms outstretched to image Christ Crucified, kneeling in prayer before the firing squad, crumpled dead on the ground—vividly, visually remind us that not long ago, not far away, the faith we take for granted cost everything! Born to a mining family, Miguel became a Jesuit and was sent to study Catholic labor movements in Belgium in preparation for evangelizing Mexico's workers. But he returned to find a Mexico determined to annihilate Catholicism, and, like priests before him during Roman persecutions, England's Reformation, and in China today, ministered secretly to an "underground Church" until apprehended and sentenced to the firing squad. In his final moments, Father Pro blessed his executioners, forgave his enemies, and shouted: "Viva el Cristo Rey! —Long Live Christ the King!" his defiant, dying proclamation of ultimate, transcendent loyalty. Father Pro's martyrdom reinvigorated that beleaguered Church, whose countless faithful, never again afraid, would throng John Paul II when he visited Pro's beloved Mexico 52 years later. —Peter Scagnelli

Saint Agnes Catholic School

St. Agnes School is a Catholic community centered on the teachings of Jesus Christ and strengthened by the partnership between parents, who are the primary educators of our students, and our dedicated teaching staff.

We believe in the mission to educate our students so that they become loving Christians, inspired learners, outstanding achievers, natural communicators, and strong servants of God.

All Saints Day reminds us of all who have gone before us in Faith and are examples of how to live our lives to their fullest potential. The first grade class helps put this reminder front and center with their Saint project. We were blessed to have in our presence: Sts. Dominic, Peter, Joseph, Camilla Batista Varano, Teresa of Avila, Clare of Assisi, John the Baptist, Francis de Sales, Florian, Caspar, Martin of Tours, Luke, Caroline, Cecilia, Philomena, Louise de Marillac, Anthony, Aloysius, Elizabeth Ann Seton, Christopher, Grace, two of St. George, two of St. Agnes, three of St. Francis of Assisi, three of Our Blessed Mother Mary, four of St. Patrick, and five of St. Michael.
All you holy men and women, pray for us.
