March 17th, 2024 | Fifth Sunday in Lent

From the Gospel of John

“I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? ‘Father, save Me from this hour’? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify Your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified It and will glorify It again.”

Jn 12:20-33

Saint of the Week

Saint Toribio De Mogrovejo (1538-1606) | (March 23rd)

In times of crisis, God always "surprises" the Church with unlikely saints, through whom Christ's light radiates beyond their local communities to illumine the universal Church. Charles Borromeo was such a saint: appointed Archbishop of Milan at twenty-one by his papal uncle, epitomizing the corruption that the Reformers condemned, Charles instead inspired a revival that reinvigorated a Church devastated by the Reformation.

His less well-known contemporary, Toribio de Mogrovejo, was God's "saintly surprise" in the New World. Spanish-born lawyer, professor, head of the feared Inquisition, Toribio was still a layman when a grateful king appointed him Archbishop of far-off Lima. Once in Peru, however, Toribio was appalled at the abuse of indigenous peoples by the occupying conquistadores—his fellow countrymen—and by the complicity of the clergy. He became the natives' devoted advocate, building churches, schools, hospitals, and the first seminary in the Americas, publishing catechisms and prayerbooks in the native languages he painstakingly mastered. Four hundred years later, whenever Pope Benedict welcomed Latin American bishops to Rome, he always invoked "the shining example of San Toribio."

St. Agnes School is a Catholic community centered on the teachings of Jesus Christ and strengthened by the partnership between parents, who are the primary educators of our students, and our dedicated teaching staff.

We believe in the mission to educate our students so that they become loving Christians, inspired learners, outstanding achievers, natural communicators, and strong servants of God.

"Apart from the Cross, there is no other ladder by which we can get to Heaven." St Rose of Lima

During Lent, St Agnes students have had the privilege of attending Stations of the Cross each Friday afternoon. It is a wonderful time to prepare our hearts and minds during this liturgical season and unite ourselves more closely to Our Lord.

We adore You, O Christ, and we praise You. Because by Your Holy Cross You have redeemed the world.
