Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

From the Gospel of Mark

“While they were eating, He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, ‘Take it; this is My body.’”

Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, ‘This is My blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.’”

Mk 14:12-16, 22-26

“Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it.” - Mark 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for us, completely for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means we offer our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

Saint of the Week

Saint Charles Lwanga and His Companions (martyred 1886-87) | June 3rd

“Master of Pages,” reputedly the handsomest man in all Uganda, Charles Lwanga, lay catechist, courageously led about forty teenaged boys, Catholics and Anglicans, on a forty-mile forced march to martyrdom for their common Christian faith.

Teaching each other the hymns of their different churches, they strengthened one another for the ordeal ahead. King Mwanga, himself barely twenty, had ordered them executed for being “those who pray.” But these royal pages were the king’s male harem, who, now Christians, refused what pious accounts demurely describe as his “unreasonable demands.” Some were clubbed to death, most burned alive; the youngest, thirteen-year old Saint Kizito, whom Charles had often shielded from the King’s lust; the most tragic, Saint Mbagwa, whose father was his executioner!

In 1964, Paul VI canonized the young Catholics and praised their Anglican companions, recalling the heroism of early Christianity’s African martyrs, which we modern Christians of far less faith never expected to see repeated. Forty years after the pope’s words, what does our faith cost us? Heroism aside, how generous is our response?

Praying Like the Ancient Fathers - Men's and Women's Retreat

Join Father Juan Puigbó, Pastor of St. Leo the Great Parish, for a unique men's and women's silent retreat. The first Christians faced many challenges from political & spiritual adversaries. The needs of the early Church were very pressing, but they learned very soon to trust in the Lord Jesus, their Savior. They took the Gospel so very much to heart that they surrendered their lives to Christ by dying as martyrs or by fleeing to the desert as monastics. Either way, their strong relationship with the living God made them giants of Christian spirituality--an excellent example for us in today's troubled world. This silent retreat begins at 5 p.m. on Friday, June 21st, and ends at 1 p.m. on Sunday, June 23rd. Retreat cost is $285 per person. For further information or to register, please contact Deacon Mark Maines at mark.maines@arlingtondiocese.org.

Carlo Acutis started cataloging Eucharistic Miracles around the world when he was just 11 years old and wrote at the time, "The more Eucharist we receive, the more we will become like Jesus so that on this earth we will have a foretaste of Heaven." He then asked his parents to start taking him to all the places of the Eucharistic miracles, and two and half years later the project was completed.

He researched over 136 Eucharistic miracles that occurred over the centuries in different countries around the world, and have been acknowledged by the Church and collected them into a virtual museum. Besides creating a website to house this virtual museum, he helped create panel presentations that have traveled around the world. Carlo is the youngest contemporary person to be beatified. He used his gifts to share these Eucharistic Miracles with us all!

My Spiritual Goal for the Week

Saint Agnes Catholic School

St. Agnes School is a Catholic community centered on the teachings of Jesus Christ and strengthened by the partnership between parents, who are the primary educators of our students, and our dedicated teaching staff.

We believe in the mission to educate our students so that they become loving Christians, inspired learners, outstanding achievers, natural communicators, and strong servants of God.

Our Sixth and Seventh Grade classes visited the Museum of the Bible recently. They were able to interact with many displays, see lots of ancient Biblical artifacts up close and personal (the 'youngest' being over a thousand years old!), and even got to part the Red Sea! It was a wonderful time to view the Bible and its history in a more personal setting. Thank you to our many chaperones and teachers that made this possible.

"Our hope is found in the Lord. He comforts and lifts our spirits if we will run to Him with our doubts, worries, and fears." Psalm 94:19
