From the Gospel of Mark

“And He looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told Him the whole truth. He said to her, ‘Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction.’”

It is often forgotten that Our Lady of Fatima requested the First Saturday Devotion to be widely observed to ensure Russia's conversion. The consecration which recently took place by Pope Francis was not the only requirement for the conversion of Russia, according to Our Lady of Fatima. She included the request for the observance of the First Saturday devotion. She said to Sister Lucia (one of the three children at Fatima): "When you see a night illumined by an unknown light, know that this is the great sign given you by God that He is about to punish the world for its crimes, by means of war, famine, and persecutions of the Church and of the Holy Father. To prevent this, I shall come to ask for the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart, and the Communion of reparation on the First Saturdays. If my requests are heeded, Russia will be converted, and there will be peace; if not, she will spread her errors throughout the world, causing wars and persecutions of the Church."

What is the First Saturday Devotion?

Our Lady of Fatima revealed to Sister Lucia the following aspects of the First Saturday devotion:

- ❖ Receive Holy Communion on five consecutive First Saturdays
- ❖ Go to confession each month
- ❖ Recite five decades of the Rosary on the First Saturdays
- ❖ Meditate for 15 minutes on the mysteries of the Rosary.

Father Saunders' Bible Study Tuesday Nights

Join in as we walk through the Acts of the Apostles. Come and experience this very special study time with fellow parishioners and Father Saunders. Bring your Bible!

Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. in The Parish Hall

Attention Class of 2024!

The Associates of St. John Bosco (ASJB), a Catholic non-profit in Northern Virginia founded by Fr. Christopher Vaccaro, will be hosting five (5) free College Nights for graduated high school seniors heading to college this summer.

2024 College Night Dates & Locations:

- ◆ July 2nd - St. Mark (Vienna)
- ◆ July 11th - St. Theresa (Ashburn)
- ◆ July 16th - Holy Trinity (Gainesville)
- ◆ July 23rd - Basilica of St. Mary (Alexandria)
- ◆ July 30th - St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception (Fredericksburg)

These events help rising college freshmen network with other Catholics heading to college, and give students the tools to navigate the often difficult transition of faith life in college. Students hear from upperclassmen who give their personal tips and testimonies about how they transitioned to college and maintained a strong faith life. There are small groups divided by students' universities, and students walk away with a free bundle of Catholic books called the "Bosco Bundle" to bring to college that will help them deepen their faith while away at school. The events come with a free pizza dinner, too. Registration is FREE! To register, please visit: <https://www.asjb.org/student-registration>.

“...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality.” 2 Corinthians 8:14

One of the tenets of living a grateful and generous lifestyle is giving without expecting anything in return. It is important that we not only grow, nurture, and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same.

This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the “Body of Christ.” We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

Saint of the Week

Saint Junípero Serra
(1713-1784) | July 1st

No one who has stood before the quiet majesty of Mission San Juan Capistrano, or the altogether different but no less lovely Mission Dolores in San Francisco, or any of the missions from San Diego to Sonoma can fail to bless the Franciscan padre who, while not founder of each, was inspiration for them all, Saint Junípero Serra.

Abandoning the comfortable academic life to which his doctorate in theology entitled him, Serra journeyed to the New World where his tireless traveling, dramatic preaching, and penitential austerity converted thousands of native peoples.

Saving souls and celebrating the sacraments were Padre Serra’s primary mission but not his only one. Education in letters and crafts, trades and agriculture transformed the people, while roads and irrigation systems transfigured the landscape.

His more than thirty years of ministry were not free from conflict with authorities or without controversy in the retrospectively critical eye of history. But when John Paul II beatified him in 1988, he praised Padre Serra for assisting his converts to use their new faith to advance their true human development.

"Nothing is so strong as gentleness, and there is nothing so gentle as real strength. Be strong enough to be gentle." - St. Francis de Sales 1567-1622

This past June 16th now carries with it a very special meaning to me. It's more than coincidental that it happened to be Father's Day. What a treat it was for this "Father." Please know how grateful I am for the kindness and thoughtfulness I received on my "final day" at St. Agnes.

Your presence at Mass and kind words at the reception still ring a beautiful note in my head. It was so nice to hear such positive comments about my ministry at St. Agnes. But, as I alluded to at Mass, it is I who greatly benefited. I am a better person and a better priest thanks to you. And it's not so much what you said to me over the last five years, as it is what I observed in your interactions with one another, especially the kindness and concern for the members of your family.

Let us continue our journey onward, loving God and serving our neighbor. "And be patient. You are in good company. Our Lord Himself, our Blessed Lady, the apostles and countless saints. You are never alone. You have the communion of saints to aid and support you."

Please continue to keep me in your prayers; you remain in mine, especially at Mass and the Rosary.
