

Saint Agnes Catholic Church

March 9th, 2025 | First Sunday in Lent

From the Gospel of Luke

“Then he led Him to Jerusalem, made Him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to Him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written: He will command his angels concerning you, to guard you, and: With their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone.” Jesus said to him in reply, ‘It also says, You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test.’ When the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from Him for a time.”

Lk 4:1-13

Msgr. Saunders' Bible Study

Come join us on Tuesday March 11th at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

We are now studying the Gospel of St. Luke.

“I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me.” - Deuteronomy 26:10

This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your “first fruits” - the first and best that you have to offer? Or do you give from what you have leftover?

Second, do you realize that everything you have and that everything you are has been given to you by God? We aren't owners of anything, we are merely stewards of God's gifts. Pray for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances.

St. Agnes School is a Catholic community centered on the teachings of Jesus Christ and strengthened by the partnership between parents, who are the primary educators of our students, and our dedicated teaching staff.

We believe in the mission to educate our students so that they become loving Christians, inspired learners, outstanding achievers, natural communicators, and strong servants of God.

Saint Agnes Catholic School

“Artistic talent is a gift from God and whoever discovers it in himself has a certain obligation: to know that he cannot waste this talent, but must develop it.” St. John Paul II

St. Agnes 6th graders took this advice to heart, and put on two amazing plays for the school community. We were entertained by many of the Greek myths, from Hephaestus, to Pandora, to Atlas, to Hercules. They also put on a production of The Odyssey. All plays were written by the students, following a literature unit. Mrs. Morris directed the young thespians, and their performances were FANTASTIC!
