Attention Class of 2025!

The Associates of St. John Bosco (ASJB), a Catholic non-profit in Northern Virginia, founded by Fr. Christopher Vaccaro, will be hosting five free College Nights this summer for graduated seniors heading to college this fall. 2025 College Night Dates & Locations:

- ♦ July 1st - St. Mark (Vienna)
- ♦ July 10th - St. Theresa (Ashburn)
- ♦ July 15th - Holy Trinity (Gainesville)
- ♦ July 22nd - Basilica of St. Mary (Alexandria)
- ♦ July 29th - St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception (Fredericksburg)

These events help rising college freshmen network with other Catholics heading to college, and give students the tools to navigate the transition from high school to college, keeping their Catholic faith strong. Students hear from upperclassmen who give their personal testimonies about how they transitioned to college and maintained a strong faith life. There are small groups divided by students' universities and students walk away with a free bundle of Catholic books called the "Bosco Bundle" to bring to college that will help them deepen their faith while away at school. The events come with a pizza dinner, too. Registration is FREE! For dates, locations, and more information, please visit: www.asjb.org/student-registration. Each night is capped at 50 students, so early registration is encouraged.

"...Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (John 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God.

Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans.

The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all

He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you.

Make God your first choice and not your last resort.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Why is it still Easter? The lilies have long since faded. The roots of our tradition of fifty days of rejoicing from Easter to Pentecost lie in the seven-day rhythm of the Jewish week, drawn from the six days of creation plus a Sabbath day. A favorite name for the Lord's Day among our ancestors in the faith was "The Eighth Day," meaning that in Christ a breakthrough to a new humanity was achieved. With that inner architecture, it makes sense to see Pentecost as a week of weeks, forty-nine days plus one, again signaling that a new age has begun in Christ and the outpouring of his Spirit. The Jewish appreciation for Pentecost gave rise to the Jubilee year, the fiftieth year, when debts were released and prisoners set free. Today, the character of our Easter Sundays is conveyed by joyful Alleluias and the rite of sprinkling at Mass. Long ago, people expressed this joy by suspending all rules of fasting and by never kneeling at liturgy.

These customs all point to our conviction that time is holy. There is an elegant balance to the Christian year: forty days of Lenten fast and discipline give way to fifty days of unrestrained rejoicing. That's why it is still Easter!

—Rev. James Field

Paul and Barnabas wanted to make sure that this error would not spread.

Find and circle the underlined words from the story.

Some men from Judea went to Antioch, where they taught that Jewish customs must be obeyed in order to be saved. Paul and Barnabas disagreed. They went to Jerusalem to discuss this teaching with the apostles and elders. The Jerusalem church sent Judas and Silas back to Antioch with a letter. They told the Gentile Christians not to be troubled by what the men had said.

My Spiritual Goal for the Week

St. Agnes School is a Catholic community centered on the teachings of Jesus Christ and strengthened by the partnership between parents, who are the primary educators of our students, and our dedicated teaching staff.

We believe in the mission to educate our students so that they become loving Christians, inspired learners, outstanding achievers, natural communicators, and strong servants of God.

No, you're not seeing double or triple! St. Agnes School Student Council sponsored a "dress like a teacher day," and the students came through! It was so much fun to see who dressed as whom, and the outfits were pretty spot on! Way to go!
