Dear Parishioners,

As we gaze upon our Nativity scene, whether at home or at Church, let us remember this teaching that we find in the Catechism of the Catholic Church: “No one, whether shepherd or wise man, can approach God here below except by kneeling before the manger at Bethlehem and adoring Him hidden in the weakness of a new-born child” (#563).

Yes, we humble ourselves before our Lord Jesus. He is the Word of God through whom all things were made, who humbled Himself to enter this world and who by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. He, true God and true man, perfectly revealed God’s truth and love to us.

St. Paul further states, “He humbled Himself, obediently accepting even death, death on a cross. Because of this God, highly exalted Him and bestowed on Him above every other name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee must bend... and every tongue proclaim to the glory of God the Father: Jesus Christ is Lord!” (Philippians 2:6-11)

Therefore, let us humble ourselves and kneel gazing upon the image of our new born Savior. May our hearts be filled with profound faith in the God who loved us so much He gave us His only begotten Son to give everlasting life to those who believe. May our hearts be filled with gratitude for the true blessings we have—our faith, our church, and our loved ones. May our hearts be filled with mercy and generosity for those in need. May the Love we gaze upon be reflected in our lives this Christmas and every day.

As your pastor, I thank you for your dedication and sacrifices that enable this parish to be a sign of the Lord’s presence in this world. In particular, I thank those who generously serve in the various ministries and organizations. On behalf of Fr. Folmar, Fr. Ricky, Fr. Oetjen, and all of the Parish Staff, I wish each of you a blessed and joyous Christmas and New Year! Please be assured of our prayers for your intentions and a remembrance at Holy Mass.

May God bless you,
Mgr. William P. Saunders, Pastor

SAINT OF THE WEEK Saint John Kanty (1390-1473) | December 23rd

Perhaps not many have heard of today's saint. A native of Poland, as a young man John proved himself to be a bright student at the University of Krakow. He then went on to become a priest and professor but was later prevented from teaching by rivals and became a parish priest instead. Yet, difficulties found him there as well, in the form of personal fear and opposition by parishioners. Those who took the time to get to know him were eventually won over by his humility and kindness. He eventually returned to Krakow to teach Scripture but led a sacrificial and austere life, keeping only the bare essentials and donating the rest to those in need. He slept little, ate little and gave much. His life is a great example of focusing on the essential - Jesus - and pruning out the unnecessary. Lord, grant us the grace to be more humble, selfless and kind. Saint John of Kanty, pray for us!

Christmas 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Christmas shines as a season of joy, unity, and renewed hope. The Child of Bethlehem comes to draw us together as one family of faith, bridging every distance and healing every division. His radiant light pierces the darkness reminding us that in Christ love triumphs and peace endures.

As we gather once more around the manger of Bethlehem, our hearts are filled with awe and gratitude for the gift of God’s love made visible in Jesus Christ. At Christmas, we rejoice in the wondrous mystery of the Incarnation—God made man, dwelling among us to share our humanity, joys, and sorrows. In Him, heaven and earth are united, and through Him, we are reconciled to our Creator. The birth of our Savior reveals that God’s love knows no boundaries.

I invite you to celebrate this holy season with renewed thanks for the gift of one another. May we follow the example of the Holy Family, who in faith and love welcomed the will of God with trust and serenity.

May the joy of this Christmas strengthen the bonds of unity among us and may the peace of Christ reign in your hearts and homes.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

St. Agnes School is a Catholic community centered on the teachings of Jesus Christ and strengthened by the partnership between parents, who are the primary educators of our students, and our dedicated teaching staff.

We believe in the mission to educate our students so that they become loving Christians, inspired learners, outstanding achievers, natural communicators, and strong servants of God.

"This time of Advent is a time for hope. These great horizons of our Christian vocation, this unity of life built on the presence of God our Father, can and ought to be a daily reality. Ask our Lady, along with me, to make it come true. Try to imagine how she spent these months, waiting for her Son to be born. And our Lady, Holy Mary, will make of you alter Christus, ipse Christus: another Christ, Christ himself!"~St Josemaria Escriva

St Agnes started the Advent season with our blessing of the Advent wreaths. Thank you to Father Folmar and the Student Council who led us in the prayer service and helped begin our liturgical year with a focus on Jesus.
