Titles of Mary

Our Lady of the Forsaken | May 12th

Our Lady of the Forsaken was originally the patron saint of a fifteenth-century society dedicated to the care of the homeless and mentally ill in Valencia, Spain. Nuestra Señora de los Desamparados eventually came to be the object of general veneration in Valencia, and she is now the patron saint of the city.

Our Lady of Fatima | May 13th

Starting on May 13, 1917, the Blessed Mother appeared on the same date for six straight months to three shepherd children in Fátima, Portugal. Among other things, her message was intended to increase devotion to her Immaculate Heart and to encourage praying the rosary daily for peace in the world.

SAINT OF THE WEEK | May 10th | Saint Damien Joseph De Veuster of Moloka’i | (1840-1889)

In the mid-1990s, a heavily bearded, bespectacled Robin Williams appeared on Late Night with David Letterman, whose host was clearly taken aback. Letterman inquired as to why the wild look. Uncharacteristically subdued, the usually manic comic responded that he was producing and starring in a movie about a most extraordinarily compassionate man, Damien, the Leper Priest of Moloka’i.

Some saints transcend religious and ethnic boundaries to touch the heart that beats in each human being: Francis of Assisi; Mother Teresa; and, though Williams’ film was never completed, his admiration speaks, as does Damien’s statue outside the capitol in Honolulu, of this newest saint’s universal appeal. Far from his native Flanders’ idyllic beauty and rich culture, Damien volunteered to bear Christ’s light into Moloka’i’s bleak leper colony, building decent homes, opening schools, establishing clinics, planting farms, sharing the sufferings—and the social stigma—of those with whom he delighted to identify: “We lepers,” he would proudly say when finally he contracted leprosy. Saint Damien challenges us to identify the lepers of our own day, to examine our compassion for and our identification with them.

“Christ made my soul beautiful with the jewels of grace and virtue. I belong to Him Whom the angels serve.”

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There is a geography to the liturgy of baptism that distills the journey of faith. Each part of the liturgy is assigned to a distinct part of the church building. Baptism, whether of infants carried to church by their parents or of adults following the paschal candle into a darkened church at Easter, starts at the door. First, a threshold must be crossed and a new community of meaning and memory encountered for the first time. Then, the celebration moves to the place for God’s Word. Next, as the litany of the saints is sung, there is a procession to the font. Finally, the movement is to the table, the altar of the Eucharist. There, newly baptized adults are brought to the sacred meal, or the parents of infants are blessed and reminded that their child will one day share fully in the table’s banquet.

Many Catholic churches honor this geography by placing the font near the door, or at least small vessels with water. The doorway of our church is a place of memory, and a passageway to a new way of living.

—Rev. James Field

On April 18th, we had the pleasure of listening to George Weigel talk on the Legacy of Vatican II

Saint Agnes Catholic School

St. Agnes School is a Catholic community centered on the teachings of Jesus Christ and strengthened by the partnership between parents, who are the primary educators of our students, and our dedicated teaching staff.

We believe in the mission to educate our students so that they become loving Christians, inspired learners, outstanding achievers, natural communicators, and strong servants of God.

*“Prudence is the knowledge of what is to be sought and what is to be avoided.”~
St. Ambrose of Milan*

St. Agnes School practiced the virtue of Prudence throughout the month of March. Prudence is an essential virtue and life skill that will help all our students go far in their spiritual lives. Prudence the life skill helps us make the right choice to keep us safe and healthy.
