SAINT OF THE WEEK | May 22nd | Saint Rita of Cascia | (1381-1457)

If you're ever in Philadelphia on May 22, forget parking anywhere near Saint Rita's shrine. Cars line streets and fill medians as throngs pack a candlelight vigil and six Masses, honoring this patroness of lost causes, hopeless situations, and—as her statue in countless churches built by twentieth-century immigrants testifies—difficult marriages, troubled homes, and alienated children.

Wise people warn, be careful what you pray for. "Divine Savior," Rita prayed, "let me suffer like you!" Obedient to parents who refused her wish to become a nun, Rita married a man who returned her devotion with twenty years of abuse. When enemies murdered him, Rita's two sons swore revenge. Paintings depict her pointing the angry boys toward Christ crucified, whom she begged to restrain them. Within the year, both sons died.

Alone now, Rita went to the convent but was refused. The nuns feared violence, since one of them was related to the murderer. Rita arranged peace between the families, made vows, and became much sought after as a counselor and intercessor for forty years on earth—and ever since in heaven.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the Easter season until now, we have heard accounts of the Risen Lord’s appearances to his disciples, sometimes individually, but most often when they are assembled together, and very often at meals. Now they are faced with the mystery of the Lord’s disappearance from their sight, coupled with a deepening awareness of his constant presence. We recall the days when the church took shape from the quality of relationships forged among the first disciples through their following of Christ. From then on, they are meant to be the sign of Christ’s presence in the world.

As we, the baptized, gather week by week, we too are shaped into a sacrament of God’s justice for the world. Like the first disciples, we too are “works in progress,” unfinished works of art. Many of us are splashed with water at the beginning of Mass in this season, an effective and refreshing wake-up call for us to engage ever more fully with our baptism. We are nearing the end of ninety days of renewal. Lent and Easter are drawing to a rousing close. Has Christ “Eastered” in you yet?

—Rev. James Field

Titles of Mary

Our Lady of Vladimir | May 21st

This ancient Marian icon can be traced back to the year 1125. For many, she is the most beloved image of the Eastern Church. In 1169, the icon was brought from Kiev to the new cathedral built for her in Vladimir, honoring her for her gracious assistance throughout the Ukraine.

Dear Saint Agnes Family,

Our hearts are filled with gratitude for the beautiful surprise celebration you organized in honor of our birthdays and our 50th wedding anniversary. We were truly overwhelmed by your kindness, generosity, and the love that surrounded us that day.

We are especially touched by the care and support you have shown for our son, Father Ricky Malebranche. Knowing that he is serving in such a warm, thoughtful, and faith-filled community at Saint Agnes Catholic Church is a tremendous blessing to us as his parents.

Thank you to everyone who contributed so generously toward the cake and gift card, and to all who worked behind the scenes to bring everything together so beautifully. From the flyer, to ordering and safeguarding the cake and cupcakes, to setting up, hosting, celebrating, and cleaning up afterward. Everything was done with such thoughtfulness and love.

We are also deeply grateful to all of you who took such wonderful care of us and made us feel so honored. The joy, laughter, and fellowship we experienced and of course the joyful energy from the party poppers to their smiling faces will remain in our hearts.

Thank you for allowing us to celebrate this meaningful milestone in such a beautiful way. We feel truly blessed to be part of such a warm, generous and loving parish family.

We wish all of you a very Happy and Blessed Easter!

With heartfelt appreciation,

Margaret & Jacques

“Christ made my soul beautiful with the jewels of grace and virtue. I belong to Him Whom the angels serve.”

What does it mean to be an “active Catholic”?

An active Catholic is a person who cherishes the faith received at Holy Baptism, nourished through the Holy Eucharist, healed through the Sacrament of Penance, and strengthened through the Sacrament of Confirmation. An active Catholic embraces the teachings of the Catholic Church contained in the Word of God and in Sacred Tradition, and strives to live them.

An active Catholic is registered in the parish, supports the mission of the Church with time, talent, and treasure, whether by worshipping at Holy Mass each Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation (except for illness or emergency), volunteering to serve the parish community in various ways, and supporting the parish financially, using Faith Direct or offertory envelopes. Active Catholic spouses and parents seek to help their loved ones know Jesus through prayer, Holy Mass, regular Penance, religious education, and charitable works.

Why is this important? Anyone who seeks to be a godparent or sponsor for the Sacraments of Baptism or Confirmation, or enter the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony, or receive a Catholic Tuition Rate at School must first be verified as an active Catholic and parishioner.

SUMMER COURSES

CALLED TO LOVE:
THEOLOGY OF THE BODY

THEOLOGY OF THE LAITY

JULY 13-17, 2026

JULY 20-24, 2026

Students will examine John Paul II's "Catechesis on Human Love" through a close reading of the text and an exploration of the philosophical and biblical sources of the pope's vision. The aim is to see the intimate connection of human love with its Divine Source, the Trinitarian God who is Love, and how the human being, in his entirety, images Him.

The course explores the mission of the laity in light of the relationship of the Church and the world and of the hierarchy and the laity, emphasizing the essential lay role in Christ's salvific work. Drawing on John Paul II, Madeline Delbr el, and others, the course highlights the ecclesial significance of the lay vocation and equips students for their mission in the world.

Each course fee is $150. For more information, email information@johnpaulii.edu.
