Titles of Mary
 Our Lady of Perpetual Help |
 June 27th

This famous icon depicts Jesus after a prophetic vision of His passion from archangels Michael and Gabriel, running into the arms of His mother—even losing a sandal in the process. As Mary comforted her Son then, she continues to help us now in our times of need.

“Do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows.” (Matthew 10:31)

Do not fear how Jesus is calling you to build his Church. Pray for clarity in your discernment.

If you need help discerning your vocation, contact your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (703) 841-2514 or via email: vocations@arlingtondiocese.org.

MEN'S SILENT RETREAT

Following St. Joseph to Jesus

July 10-12
Friday - Sunday

He played an essential role in the greatest event in human history; husband to Mary, adopted Father of Jesus Christ, a quiet carpenter... and a righteous man. Aside from these things we don't know much about St. Joseph — but what we do know can help us to be better Men...husbands, and fathers.

Come aside and rest awhile at our Arlington Diocesan Retreat Center at the edge of the Shenandoah Mountains in White Post, Virginia

Father John Riley will be offering Mass, Confessions and Conferencess during this silent retreat for men who would like to learn from St. Joseph how to live, pray, and draw nearer to Jesus — by His Grace to become

"Men after Christ's Own Heart."

Retreat cost is $299. Financial assistance may be available. For more information or to register, please contact Father Riley at retreat@sacredheartwinchester.org or visit our website at ArlingtonDiocese.org/Retreat

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the tradition of the Church, not necessarily in your own life's timeline, confirmation is the midpoint of Christian initiation, standing between font and table. Full initiation is completed when a confirmed person shares in the Eucharist. Centuries ago, this first sharing in the eucharistic assembly was marked by a first sharing in the Prayer of the Faithful. This prayer raises up the needs of the church and human community, the concerns of the faithful assembled, as they prepare to lift up the world to the Father's love. So a person could not participate in the prayer until they were anointed with the "Oil of Thanksgiving." Next, the newly baptized presented their gifts at the altar, a sure sign of their investment a new way of life. Until the sixth century, these people normally drank a mixture of milk and honey as a kind of pre-Communion. They were hungry, of course, since they were baptized hungry after long fasting, but this beautiful symbol of the promised land revealed them as God's chosen, heirs to the promise. Although the "milk shake" disappeared centuries ago, we still see the vigor of this new life whenever adults are initiated at Easter, and increasingly in confirmation ceremonies that are attentive to this meaning.

—Rev. James Field

“Christ made my soul beautiful with the jewels of grace and virtue. I belong to Him Whom the angels serve.”

SAINT OF THE WEEK June 22nd Saint John Fisher (1469-1535) & Saint Thomas More (1477-1535)

From Robert Bolt’s classic A Man For All Seasons to Showtime’s edgy The Tudors, Thomas More endears himself still: lawyer-statesman of impeccable integrity, remarried widower and affectionate father delighting in a lively household—four children, a pet monkey, even a paid jester! And challenges still: humanist-reformer, yet champion of Catholic faith and papal primacy. John Paul II named him “Patron of Statesmen and Politicians,” citing More’s generous work, both as a lawyer and in government service, on behalf of the poorest and most marginalized people of his time, as well as his promotion of education for all sectors of society. More’s decision for principle over politics, conscience over convenience prompted his final words: “I die the King’s good servant, but God’s first.”

Alone among England’s bishops, John Fisher dared challenge Henry VIII’s divorce and repudiation of the papacy. When the Pope named the imprisoned Fisher a cardinal, Henry thundered: “Don’t bother sending Fisher’s red hat here; I’ll send Fisher’s head to Rome!” Whose “good servants” are we first? Isn’t a right conscience worth the pain of standing alone?

—Peter Scagnelli

St. Agnes School is a Catholic community centered on the teachings of Jesus Christ and strengthened by the partnership between parents, who are the primary educators of our students, and our dedicated teaching staff.

We believe in the mission to educate our students so that they become loving Christians, inspired learners, outstanding achievers, natural communicators, and strong servants of God.

St. Ignatius of Antioch: “I wish not merely to be called Christian, but also to be Christian.”

St. Agnes 8th graders were sealed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit during the Confirmation Mass. What a joy to see the sacrament of Baptism be completed in such a beautiful manner. A big thank you to Bishop Loverde for presiding over this important sacrament.

Sts. Andrew, Brigid, Carlo, Catherine, Christopher, George, Ignatius, Joan, John Paul, Lucy, Mary Magdalene, Maximillian, Michael, Moses, Teresa, and Thomas, Pray for Us!
