What are Abortion Pills?

Read the full version at bit.ly/what-are-abortion-pills.

"Most abortions are no longer done by surgery in clinics, but by taking pills. In addition to ending the lives of babies, abortion pills are dangerous for the mothers who take them. They have been found to cause four times as many complications as surgical abortions.

In 2021, the FDA made the abortion pill available even without an in-person doctor visit. Being able to get abortion pills mailed to your home, or at your local pharmacy, means abortions are now happening everywhere and anywhere. This easier access to abortion pills also increases the chances of their being used by abusive partners or sex trafficking criminals against a woman's will."

Holy Hour for Life

Our weekly Wednesday evening Holy Hours will be a Holy Hour for Life until the Election on November 3.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am asking you to take some specific actions throughout October to defeat two radically unjust ballot initiatives now before all Virginia voters.

Our Catholics Vote No campaign is rooted in prayer and fasting.

Therefore, On Fridays, I ask that you pray the Stations of the Cross. And fast—which means eating only one full meal and no meat.

On Sundays, I ask that you pray the Rosary and fast from social media for at least a few hours—especially before and after Mass.

It would be a powerful force if all in the Diocese of Arlington were united in these efforts. We entrust them to the Lord's amazing grace, so all that is just, right, and true will be done in this election.

May God bless you and your families.

— Bishop Michael Burbidge

What is God's

There is a Bible verse on my calendar for the current month that states, "Where your treasure is, there your heart will also be" (Matthew 6:21). The "treasures" of Earth eventually fade and pass away.

In today's Gospel, we encounter the Herodians and Pharisees joining together against Christ. The treasure in this case, a coin, had the image of Caesar on it. While notoriously at odds with one another, in this case, the Herodians and Pharisees do have something very much in common: a love of the things of this world. Their priorities are their law and traditions, and love for those outside their ways is set aside.

Many times I must admit I also mistakenly get distracted. I must ask myself over and over, am I of this world or of the Kingdom? Do we belong to our selfish pride, or dedicate every last breath to God alone? The penny that may have at one point seemed to have so much value quickly became worthless. So too with all the status and fame one derives from fortune and reputation.

Remarkably, Christ teaches us to give to Caesar what is Caesar's - the money, the worldly possessions - and to God, what is God's. Give to God what is God's. We ourselves are created in the image and likeness of God. Not much has changed in today's world where our priorities are often misled. As parents we concentrate on our reputation in the workplace, or financial status, rather than spending our time with those God has entrusted to us. Christ reminds us that true disciples do not find themselves belonging to the chains of money and possessions but to God alone. — Alexis Dallara-Marsh

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

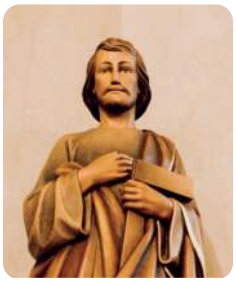

North American Martyrs

Saints Isaac Jogues (1560-1646) and John de Brébeuf (1593-1649) and their companions

October 19

Their mission was to New France, but these missionaries found in present day New York State and the Province of Ontario a world wildly different from the homes they left behind. Six Jesuit priests, Fathers Isaac Jogues, John de Brébeuf, Anthony Daniel, Gabriel Lalemant, Charles Garnier, and Noel Chabanel—and Jesuit lay volunteers Rene Goupil and John Lalande—shared the gospel with the Native Americans they met, in languages they painstakingly learned, and through images they creatively adapted to the indigenous cultures (for example, John de Brebeuf's "'Twas in the Moon of Wintertime: the Huron Carol"). But their evangelization was caught up in turmoil beyond their control: a smallpox epidemic, battles between French and English trading interests—the traders united only by their willingness to exploit the Native Americans—and conflict among the tribes themselves, Huron, Mohawk, Iroquois. The missionaries' perseverance despite exhausting hardships, their steadfast courage in facing unspeakable tortures, and undaunted love even for those who martyred them, bore fruit immediately in Kateri Tekakwitha's sanctity, and eventually in the Catholicism that still flourishes in the United States and Canada. —Peter Scagnelli

St. Joseph League meets next Thursday

"He Alone Is Lord"

In the scriptures, being anointed usually meant you were a prophet or king of Israel. Cyrus was king of Persia when the Babylonians held the people of Israel captive. So why is Cyrus given that title? God used him to defeat the Babylonians and eventually bring the Israelites back to their homes.

One thing this tells us is that God can work through anyone, not just saints and religious. Any time someone does a good deed, God is behind it. Just as God used Cyrus to free the Israelites from their Babylonian captivity, God can use governments to protect the poor, to help rebuild after disasters, or to defend freedom.

In that sense, we can understand what Jesus says about payment to Caesar and to God. Since everything belongs to God, that should be our first allegiance. But when God works through governments, we can give some support to them, by such activities as voting or paying taxes. Let us ask God to work through us also, helping us to proclaim that God alone is Lord. —Tom Schmidt
