Dear Parishioners:

I am pleased to present a summary report of our financial statements for the last fiscal year, July 1, 2025 June 30, 2026. The complete report has been submitted to the Finance Office of the Diocese of Arlington, and was first reviewed by our independent accountant and Parish Finance Council.

Last fiscal year, we ended with a net surplus for the Church and School. We paid down the principal on the construction loan about $281,000, leaving a remaining balance of $2,083,634 (as of June 30). Our monthly payment is $30,000. As of October 1, the remaining loan balance owed is less than $2 million.

Here are some updates: The proposed columbarium has been reviewed by Arlington County, and we do not need to go through any zoning hurdles. The construction drawings are complete, and we are awaiting a final budget. Once we have the Bishop's final approval, we will apply for a building permit.

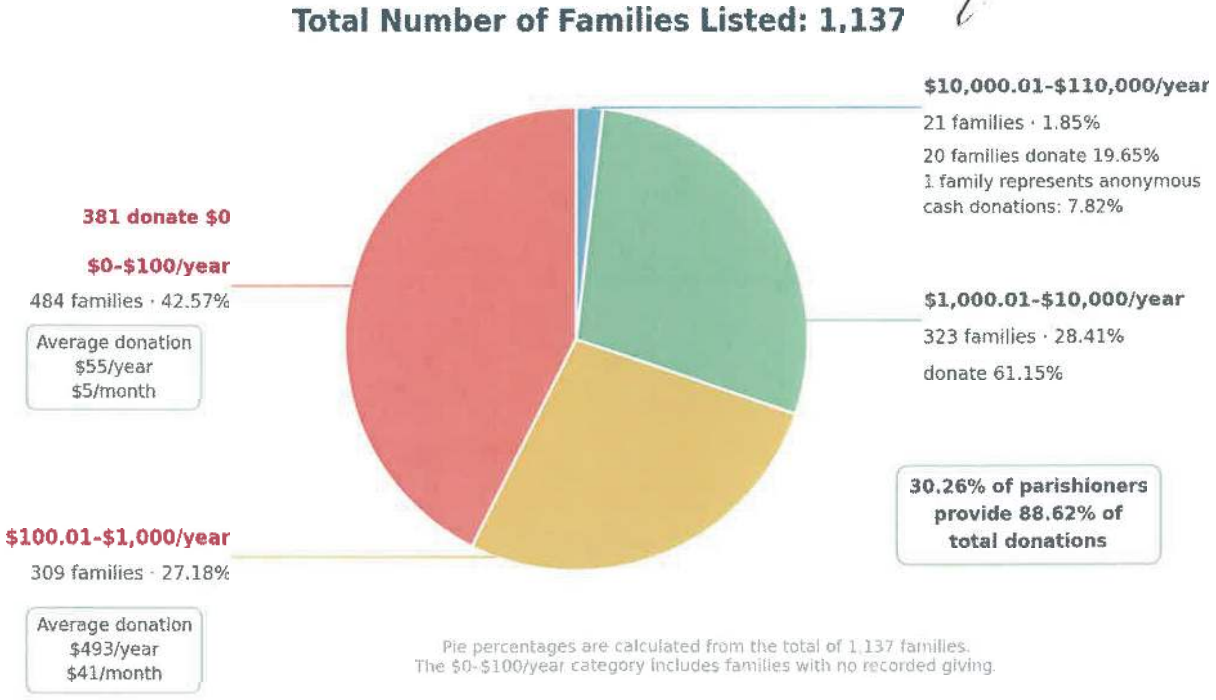

We are still awaiting final construction drawings for the playground, so we can apply for a building permit.

The only future concerns are aging HVAC units for the parish hall and church, and replacing the flat areas of the roof and fixing bell tower leaks for the Church.

In sum, I thank you for your generous support. I encourage you to evaluate your contributions, not only financial but also service. I understand that the cost of living is high, and we are busy people. As your pastor, I deal with the cost of living in managing this parish, and providing for our employees, who work very hard. As your spiritual father and pastor, I rely on your support. Last year, 30% of parishioners provided almost 90% of total donations, and 30% have no record of giving. PLEASE, with all that God has given to us, each of us should be able to make a sacrifice for the Lord to support our parish and the mission of the Church.

Please be assured of my prayers and may God bless you,

Msgr. William P. Saunders

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Martin de Porres (1579-1639)
November 3

An old illustration pictures Martin de Porres, finger to his lips—"Shhhh!"—as several mice peek out of sacristy vestment drawers, preparing to join a rodent "procession" following him out of church! Martin's rescue of these unwelcome "guests," and statues depicting him, broom in hand, feeding a dog, cat, bird, and mouse from the same dish symbolize his life and sanctity. Initially denied entrance by the Dominicans because of "mixed race" (Spanish father, Panamanian mother), Martin cherished society's marginalized. For him, menial tasks, lovingly done, were sacred. Great and lowly alike feasted on his charity. Enemies were reconciled by this "poor mulatto" (his self-description), kind even to those whose racism demeaned him. Apprenticed to a surgeon-barber in his youth—thus patron saint of hair stylists and public health providers—Martin dispensed healing and dignity to Lima's poorest, serving in them the Christ he adored for hours in the Blessed Sacrament. By the time he died, all Peru called him "Martin the Charitable," a title even those of us who will never be called "saint" might still aspire to. —Peter Scagnelli

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 5:3)

The saints show us that true joy and freedom come from placing God above all else. Their lives remind us that holiness often begins in simplicity and humility, responding generously to God's call.

During National Vocations Awareness Week, let us pray for more men and women to courageously follow Him, discerning a life as a priest, religious brother or sister, or through holy matrimony. Could God be inviting you to join in this holy witness?

Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (703) 841-2514 or via email: vocations@arlingtondiocese.org.
